— OF —

Millinery and Drygoods

Saturday, April 4th.

Masses of Meritorious Merchandise, sparkling with newness of Style. Immense stock, magnificent assortment.

LOGAN DRY GOODS CO

All Around The Town.

Clean up the yards.
Houses are very scarce.
House-hunters are numerous.
The fish liar is getting in form.
Spring chickens will soon be ripe.
The Record is fourteen years old.
City Council meets Monday night.
Wheat is unusually well advanced.

Much building will be done this Spring.
Hear the small boy, "Want go fish in 'Sad-day?"

The whitewash brush will soon be called into play.

Ring up Alex Miller if you want to catch the trains.
The Record points with pride to its display of advertising.

House-cleaning will soon be on. Give the good women plenty of room then.

The streets are being improved rapidly. Don't weary in well-doing, ye Councilmen.

The iceman will soon put in his appearance. The coal man will not enjoy the joke.

Clean up the streets. Take up a few idlers for vagrancy and put them to work on the streets.

The few sunny days brought out the loafers from their winter haunts. They came out to sun like turtles.

Merchants are finding that the only way to advertise is through the columns of the local newspaper.

A robin red-breast arrived in town Saturday, and perched upon a tree near the window, serenading The Record office.

All the up-to-date residents are going to whitewash their side fences and outbuildings this Spring. The slovens are going to leave their premises looking like a back woods shanty.

Delighted With Visit.
The young people composing the "Last Lot" company are loud in their praises of the royal reception they had at Kirkville Friday evening. The house was crowded and a neat sum realized.

Every child belonging to the "Junior Endeavor" is requested to be present Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Christian church.

The City Council should get busy and take more steps to secure water works. If you cannot go in debt to the required extent, get local capitalists to take stock.

Easter Opening.
Saturday before Easter, April 11th, Miss Eastham, the Danville milliner, will have special display of millinery for Misses and Children.

The C W B M Auxiliary will observe the week of Prayer beginning April 6th. Services to be held at Christian church at 2:30 o'clock each day. A welcome will be given to all who attend.

Good Sermons.
Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Carlisle preached two excellent discourses at the Christian church Sunday. Mr. Tindler is a splendid gentleman and made many friends during his stay in our city.

Honor for Senator Harris.
Senator George Harris was honored by a special invitation to attend the exercises at the dedication of the St. Louis Exposition. Press of business matters forced him to forego the pleasure of attending.

Big Policy.
An insurance man tells us our good friend and former townsman, Capt. W. J. Kinnaird, took an application last week for one policy for the sum of $100,000. This is an unusual thing, which goes to show what a hustler "Tiggon" is.

As Bad as Dogs.
This is the time of year when the celerity with which garden seed comes is largely dependent upon the ability of the hens to fly over the fence. There ought to be a "chicken" law compelling neighbors to keep their fowls off others' premises.

High Priced Land.
Climax:—The highest priced land sold in Madison county in many a day was a tract of 54 acres on Posey, which was sold by the Master Commissioner Friday. It was sold to satisfy a judgment of the Madison Circuit Court, and brought the sum of $700.

"Just for Fun."
The senior class of the Lancaster High School will present the above laughing farce, at Court House, Friday evening the 10th. Much work is being put on the preparation, and a splendid show will be given. Seats on sale at McRoberts' drug store. Prices 25c and 50c.

Millinery Opening.
I wish to call the attention of my friends to the beautiful line of millinery now on display at my store. We will have regular opening next Saturday, and cordially invite you to come and see what we have. The latest styles and lowest prices, always. Sallie D. Tillet.

Was Born in Garrard.
The Muncie (Ind.) Times says Mrs. Margaret J. Cones, 82 years old, the wife of Robt. Cones, died in that city last Wednesday. The deceased was born in Garrard county, Sept. 30, 1821. All her life she was an active member of the Methodist church. She was widely related in this county, and well remembered by older citizens here.

Better Than Usual.
The Danville Fair will be bigger and better this year than ever, the officials having determined to bend every energy to make it rank at the head of Kentucky fairs. The dates are August 4, 5, 6, 7, and enough money will be hung up to attract the best stock in the state. Secretary Henry C. Bright is a hand and a half at the business.

To Advertisers.
We are always glad to change advertisements, but it is impossible to do so on press day. In fact no printing office can keep several hands sitting idle all week to work one day. To insure insertion, bring your copy in Monday and that will give time to get up a good ad. We positively will not touch ads unless given us in time. We can't work day and night to accommodate people who can just as well bring their copy in time.

No Street Fair.
Mr. Paul C. Blum, general agent for the Robinson Carnival Co., was here a day or so negotiating with the City Council to bring the show here for a week's stand. There being objection on the part of some citizens, the matter was pretty well sifted, and the Council, by a vote of four to two, decided to grant a license for $100, but the shows must be given on a lot and not the Public Square. As Mr. Blum's company carries 150 people, a brass band and travels on a special train, his expenses are so great that it was thought it would not pay to bring the show here under such circumstances, so there will be no street carnival. Blum is an all-round clever gentleman, and made a number of friends while here.

Remember the laughing farce comedy, "Just for Fun," at the Court House Friday April 10.

Harris' Nickle Plate circus will show at Stanford, Monday the 6th, and Ed. Walton is as happy as a lark.

Two Big Attractions.
Danville Opera House, April 7th. John Temple Graves, April 13th. Ralph Bingham. Write E. W. Lillard for reserved seats, 75c.

Special Engagement.
Ralph Bingham, the best known humorist on the American platform, will appear at Shepherd's Hall, Kirkville, Monday night, April 6th. Tickets are being sold rapidly, and standing room will be at a premium. The prices are 15c 25c and 35c. It is not necessary to say anything further than to announce the date, as Mr. Bingham is too well known.

Sometimes Amusing.
The most detestable creature on earth is the anonymous letter writer. Scarcely a week passes that this office doesn't get one or two. Occasionally they are amusing. Last week one told of a certain married man (giving his name) who had become giddy and proceeded to tell of seeing him in a certain place, etc., etc., and the writer wanted to know why he didn't "print the news." Another letter (we believe from the same party) told of a certain young fellow kissing a girl while enroute from church, giving names, too. If we knew for certain where those letters originated, we would turn them over to the parties whose names are mentioned, but as this could not be traced down, they were placed in the stove. We get some exceedingly rich and racy ones, but no one save the editor ever sees them.

ANOTHER MILESTONE.
Wednesday, this paper entered the fourteenth year of its existence. With today's issue, the present editor has been at the helm eight years. No one has ever made much money publishing a newspaper in Lancaster, and unless the paper receives the undivided support of all business men, no one ever will, but a man can make his bread and meat, and as that is all we want, we are content to keep our nose to the stone and continue the publication. We have many friends who stick to us and speak in complimentary terms of our efforts, while on the other hand there are some few poppin' jays who knife the paper simply because we don't do it to their liking.

We can say with the greatest pride that we have never run to anyone to do our thinking for us nor been led by the nose by some people who possibly have a little "pull" or position. We believe one man who achieves himself is just as good as any man the Lord ever put upon earth. Another matter to which we point with pride is that we have never written one line that would injure any one's feelings, published any item that would cause a heartache to distressed parents or families or printed the name of anyone so unfortunate as to get into trouble or the police court. (Have you ever had any little matters that you didn't want to see in type? When we are asked in a gentlemanly way not to publish anything we always comply with the request. The Record is not led by the nose by any political party. Personally we take no interest in politics, and vote for the man we consider best qualified for the office, no matter what ticket he is on. We have a contempt for any man who will stand up and say he will vote for a yellow dog simply because the cur is on the ticket. This being the case, The Record does not fly the names of certain candidates at its masthead nor undertake to tell its readers how they should vote. Our only advice is to look behind the scenes before voting for any man, and if he is not thoroughly honest, a yard wide and all wool, don't vote for him, no matter if he is on your ticket.)

The Record has the best-equipped office in central Kentucky, as those who have been through it will testify. We can do any kind of printing you want, and at just as reasonable rates, but we do not nag at people nor beg them to trade with us. We appreciate, deeply, the patronage of our friends, always give them value received, and stand ready to return the favor. The merchants have learned that the only way to reach the people is through The Record, as the liberal use of our columns will testify. Our latest string always hangs on the outside for our friends, and we are always glad to have you call. Our list now numbers close to the twelve hundred mark, and is composed of the very best people in the county. We run strictly a local paper, consequently the Garrard county people are interested in it. We take up no space with items from the world at large, but cover Garrard county from one end to the other, as our large number of letters go to show. We prefer printing county news to town news, as the country people stand by the paper better, and, again, we would not undertake to tell some of the town sages anything, in fact Henry Watterson would find that a difficult task. But we have trespassed upon your patience with this long article, so we ring off with the promise to try and make The Record better than ever, and saying that if it is ever in this shop's power to do you a favor, don't hesitate to call upon it.

CENTRAL RECORD.

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Lancaster, Ky. April 3, 1903.

The fact that Emmett Logan is soon to retire as editor of the Louisville Times, is deeply regretted by the many readers of his bright and breezy writings. Mr Logan will retire to his farm, and instead of interesting the many readers of that up-to-the-minute paper, will devote his time to pulling the bell cord over a mule. We don't believe the hayseed will stick to Bro. Logan's hair, at least we sincerely trust not, and hope he will repent, come back to the editorial fold, take up his pen and sin no more.

The constitution of Tennessee provides that whereas ministers of the Gospel are, by their profession, dedicated to God and the care of souls, and ought not to be diverted from the great duties of their functions, therefore no minister of the gospel, or priest of any denomination whatever, shall be eligible to a seat in either House of the Legislature. This is exactly right, for if a preacher, or anyone else, wishes to keep his garments spotless, he must stay out of politics.

A New Yorker, who was operated on for appendicitis, was found to contain a few tacks, knife blades, pieces of glass and bones. We once took a nip of liquor in one of New York's big hotels, and the above is exactly what we thought was in our stomach a few minutes later.

Bro. Harmon Stitt, of the Paris Democrat, says some 24 preachers in that county would evidently enjoy going to hell so they could still make it unpleasant for sinners. What's the matter, old fellow, what you been eating?

Owensboro comes to the front with a Stradivarius violin. As there were only seven of these famous violins made, the Hancock Clarion says it can see how easily the Throne of Grace is to be bankrupted if all these liars are to be forgiven.

Hebber Matthews, the clever editor of the Hartford Herald, wants to know why the spirit of mortal man should be proud when common ordinary hog meat is selling at eighteen cents a pound? 'Tis strange.

A correspondent asks "Is there any difference between the will of a man or woman?" Well, possibly there is, but what difference does it make, the woman, bless her dear soul, is going to have it her way.

A Boston professor says that pretty girls do not make good wives. The old bean-eating fossil is a liar, as every married man will readily say.

The Richmond Pantagraph gets off one on the coffin-trimmers' strike at Cincinnati. The Pantagraph should not jest about so grave a matter.

A citizen of Augusta has patented "a device for catching and holding fowls." So he has patented the colored race, eh?

Due Notice is Served.
Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure unadulterated witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed because it cures. Sold by C C & J E Stormes.

Mr and Mrs Wm George have gone to Bristol, Tenn., to spend several weeks.

Mrs C M Richardson and child, of Somerset, have been visiting Mrs J A Collier.

Mrs Louis Doty and baby, of Stanford, were visitors here Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Carrie Currey and Theo Hemphill were in Danville Thursday shopping.

Miss Annie Wallace has returned from El Paso, Texas, where she has been teaching. She visited Mrs Joe Robinson Saturday.

Mr and Mrs A C Dunn, of Danville, and Mrs John Bright, of Stanford, have been visiting Mrs Elizabeth Simpson, who continues very ill.

A beautiful picture of Miss Sallie Ross appeared in Saturday's Courier Journal. She is one of the most popular and attractive debutantes of this city.

Mrs George Farris has returned from a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs Elbert Smith, of Jellico, Tenn. She was accompanied by little Miss Margaret Smith.

George Harris, who has been working "nites" at Stanford, was forced to give up the job on account of his eyes. He is at home recuperating and will go back to the L & N as soon as fully recovered.

Judge J C Hemphill attended a meeting of the Beaver Creek Oil & Gas Co., at Hustonville Friday. This company is one of the most successful in the state, and its stockholders have a good thing.

Richmond Register:—Senator James B. McCreary arrived home from Washington Monday night, and was warmly greeted by his constituents here, who are proud of the record the "Governor" is sure to make in "the most august body in the world."... Mr J. H. Haselden, of Lancaster, is in town.

The members of the B T V club were entertained Saturday afternoon by Miss Alice Walker. The house was decorated with palms, potted plants and spring flowers. Miss Walker offered the most tempting refreshments and always entertains in beautiful style. Guests who were not members of the club were Misses Mattie and Sallie Elkin, Louise and Frankie Kauffman, Norma Elmore, Alberta Anderson, Emma and Jessie Doty, Mary Miller, of Richmond, and Mrs Fred Frisbie.

Our good old friend, Judge E Brown, is quite ill, and has suffered considerably for the past few days.

Mrs S D Rothwell suffered a slight stroke of paralysis Friday, but her many friends are glad to know that she has about fully recovered.

Sunday night, Dr B F Walters was taken suddenly ill, and his wife went to a neighbor's to telephone for a doctor. She stumbled on the sidewalk and received a severe shock by the fall. She has since suffered much pain.

Somerset Republican: Frank Humphrey had the misfortune to feed his finger into close quarters of a big job press, and it was so painfully torn and bruised that he is lounging around town trying to feel comfortable as possible under the circumstances, and we are feeling like a lone widow, who is keeping house under difficulties almost insurmountable, and we are hoping that he will be quite well again soon.

Danville Advocate:—Mr. H T Noel sold through real estate agents Lillard & Berry, the Gill property near town to Mr Joe Farris for about $5,000. Possession will be given the first week in April. Mr. Noel and family will remove to California early in April for the benefit of their health.

Danville Advocate:—Major William Goodloe died Wednesday night in his rooms on Main street after a short illness of pneumonia. Major Goodloe was born in Madison county in 1837, and was a member of the famous Goodloe family, who first settled in Virginia in 1666. He was a leading member of the Masonic Order. He was buried with the Masonic service Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

Somerset Republican:—Judge R A Burnside, of Lancaster, spent part of the week in this city and left Tuesday morning for vicinity south in this county. Judge Burnside is helping to run Uncle Sam's revenue service, and a more deserving man doesn't live. He is an all over Republican of the Stalwart kind, and if you want to know whether Garrard county thinks him good timber, just remember that they elected him to the county judgeship for three terms, besides to other responsible offices. If we are not mistaken Dick began his public service away back in the 70's as Assessor of Internal Revenue under Judge T Z Morrow, and he has been wanted ever since.

Two mischievous girls who are members of a church choir in a neighboring town, figured recently in a laughable incident which is quite good enough to bear repeating. In some way, known only to themselves, they became possessed of the subject of the minister's Sunday morning sermon, and thereupon set about selecting songs in harmony with the theme. On Sunday morning they were on hand bright and early, looking innocent enough to deceive a brace of Pinkerton detectives. One of them seated herself at the organ and played "Faint, Yet Pursuing," which was sung as a voluntary. Then the minister arose and, consulting the list which had been given him, called for number 385. The choir sang "Almost Persuaded." The minister arose and announced the theme, "Courtship and Marriage," read the lesson and called the next song. The choir arose and sang "Triumphant At Last," and the congregation began to look amused. "After praying sing number 201," said the minister, and in his petition asked that the spirit of levity, which possessed some of the hearers, be banished. Then the choir sang "Hasten Lord, the Glorious Day," and everybody laughed. Even the minister had difficulty to stifle a smile when the choir struck up "Behold, the Bridegroom Cometh," and the congregation became positively hilarious as the organ pealed out the opening notes of "What Shall the Harvest Be?" And throughout those wicked girls preserved their expression of saintly innocence, and afterward decided that it was "the most striking peculiar co-incidence" they ever heard of.

Don't Be Hungry.

How would you like to change the wording on those calendars you blew in a lot of money on? Don't you suppose the people are wondering if you run in the same rut all the year? The same amount expended for space in a newspaper would have enabled you to keep before the people, and have a fresh ad every two weeks. Don't be humbugged by every fake that comes along and then charge the money spent as for "advertising." Its not advertising, as up-to-date business men look at it.

Man.

Man born of woman, is little person, and generally green. His life might be divided in four parts. As he starts in, his stomach is full of pains, blackberry balsam and paregoric, and he winds up the first period by stealing green apples and fishing on Sunday. The second period commencing at 15, rapidly passing into the smartaleck fever, and he learns to wear standing collars, smoke cigarettes, call his father the old man and go with the girls. At 21, after he has bankrupted his father and blown in every cent of his own, he finds a woman who is fool enough to marry him, and takes in washing until she is called away. The last period he lives around with his children, tells of the big things he did when a boy, and finally goes under making a momentary bubble on the sea of humanity, then is forgotten.—Ex.

Stay at Home.

We seldom pick up a local paper, particularly one from Western Kentucky, says an exchange, but what we see a statement that someone is going to Indiana or Illinois to make it his home. There may be conditions justifying this, but they are more often imaginary than true. If a man can successfully farm in those States he can do so in Kentucky. Farm lands are as high there as here and markets are no better. If he is looking for an easy job there he will quickly learn of his mistake. If he works as hard and with as much system here he will make money just as fast as he can in any other State. Kentucky farmers, young and old, ought to join in the pull to better develop the resources of their native State. Learn modern farming methods, apply them to the old place, and look out for crops. Don't wear the old farm down to clay and then leave because it won't grow any thing. Put back each year as much fertility as the crops remove and it will always answer the demand upon it. Stay at home.

Don't Know It These Days.

The good old custom of "learning by heart" has fallen out of use in our families and Sunday school and passages of the Bible are no longer memorized by the rising generation. A Rarity, Sure.

Carlisle Mercury:—Last Monday afternoon a crowd of between two and three hundred persons at Ewing Station assembled to bid farewell to a company of about twenty young men who started for the State of Washington with a view of permanently locating there. Religious services were held in the depot before the arrival of the train, and the scene of parting was pathetic and tender. The eyes of many fathers, mothers and sweethearts were bathed in tears as their loved ones bade adieu to the roof tree of their native home to seek a new one in the far off West, and many prayers will follow them on their way.

GOING OUT

Shopping is not always the amusing pastime for women which newspaper paragraphs would have us believe. Many a woman who must needs practice economy attends bargain sales in absolute dread of the eager, jostling crowd which she must encounter. For her back aches at the start, and she knows that she must pay for her shopping with a nervous headache.

Women who suffer from backache, headache, nervousness and other consequences of womanly diseases are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This great medicine for women establishes regularity, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"My wife, Mrs. Mary Estes, has been taking your medicine and received great benefit from it," writes Mr. George Wm. Estes, of Springfield, Va. "Was troubled with female weakness, heavy bearing-down pains, severe pain in back and head, and a tired, worn-out feeling all the time. Tried all the remedies we could hear of, but they did no good. Finally we wrote to you and my wife commenced taking 'Favorite Prescription.' Took ten bottles, and is in better health than before in a long time."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

For the Farmer, Trader and Housewife

Stock Items, Dairy Notes, Horse Talk, Crop Gossip, Etc.

A Cincinnati seed merchant predicts that clover seed will be worth $8 per bushel this season, and says there is a scarcity of good seed.

Clover contains two elements that are in demand by the hens—nitrogen and lime. It is rich in the elements required for the whites of eggs.

W. S. Gibbs, of Williamsburg, sold six two-year-old mules for $620, and one three-year-old mare mule for $150.

Clover seed is selling at $7.35 a bushel in Western Kentucky, and will go higher as the crop in Europe is a failure, and the demand in this country for this reason is much greater.

Fayette Brooks, of Jessamine, sold one pair of mare mules for $250; one of horse mules for $200, and 3 of same kind for $305.50 last week.

The tobacco growers of Montgomery were organized Saturday by W. B. Hawkins. There are now 25 similar organizations in the State. Mr. Hawkins is jubilant over the outlook for the success of the State organization.

The highest price ever paid for a trotting stallion was $125,000 for Arion, by J. Malcolm Forbes, of Boston. The next highest price was for Axtell $105,000, by W. P. Ljani, of Terre Haute.

M. W. Savage has just refused an offer of $70,000 for Dan Patch, the pacer, recently purchased by him. The offer came from an Eastern man.

Wm. Styles, manager of the Continental Tobacco Company of Maysville, purchased 1,800,000 pounds this season and all except 50,000 lbs. has been packed and shipped.

There is no cure for feather pulling except by more labor and time than an ordinary flock is worth. The best plan is to get rid of the guilty fowls as soon as possible.

Minnesota has a law requiring all cases of hog cholera to be reported by the owners, all dead ones buried, and forbidding infected ones running at large, with penalties for each offense.

It is better to have your hogs all of one breed, if you are raising them for market, as the buyer will pay you a higher price for hogs of a uniform type, even in size and color, than he will where all colors, shapes and sizes are represented. They are worth more to him because he can sell them to much better advantage when he ships them to market.

Several of our eastern Kentucky exchanges note the fact that large numbers of young men are going to I llinois and other western States to work on farms. They claim to receive better wages than in Kentucky. Only a very few have left C. K. recently, thinking that by the same amount of work and energy they can do equal as well at home.

Danville Advocate:—G. S. Gaines has sold his fine team of blacks to San Antonio, Tex., parties. This team is an unusually fine appearing pair, and has attracted much attention. The price was $400. W. R. Cook, of Lancaster, sold to Dick Gearty a mule for $120. Kentucky Supply Co., bought for first of Sept. delivery 100 tons of timothy hay from Thomas Metcalf; also 125 tons from R. G. Evans. Ky. Supply Co. sold this week two mules to Geo. Simpson for $150, one phaeton for $100, and one-sixteenth for $100. W. H. Hicks sold to Rodes & Jones, of Mercer, a sow and 13 pigs for $55.

According to a law which went into effect some months ago, all mills grinding for toll shall keep and use a sealed half bushel and peck measure, and also a sealed toll dish. If he fails to do so, he shall be fined five dollars for every time he uses any other kind, and the man who informs against him shall get the money which may be recovered before any magistrate. All grain brought to the mill shall be ground in the order in which it comes. The miller may take one-eighth toll for a water mill, one-seventh for a steam mill, and one-sixteenth for a hominy. If he takes more than this he shall be fined five dollars, and the man whom he cheats shall lose the money.

The Chicago Live Stock Journal reports that the demand for farm horses grows with the advance of spring. "However bright the 'red-devil' and 'yellow-terror' may be horses will never be displaced by the automobile on the farm or in the rural districts generally. And the present demand for farm chunks is an infallible indication that a corn crop calculated to be a record breaker if it reaches full maturity is to be planted this year." As population increases the resources of the farm are more heavily taxed, and the farmer cannot do his work well without the aid of the horse. It is one thing to dream about the near approach of the horseless age, but quite another thing to stand face to face with such a dreary period in the world's development.

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than Little Early Risers, the famous little pill.

They always effect a cure and save doctor bills. Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to full performance of its function naturally.

The scarcity of hogs throughout the country is causing the packers considerable anxiety. The visible supply this year is millions of pounds less than 12 months ago. Commenting on this fact Geo. Michael Ryan, of Cincinnati says. The price of pork will increase. There is a scarcity of hogs in the market. There is 47,000,000 lbs less pork on hand now than there was this time last year. The indications are that this class of meat will go up. I do not see how it can be otherwise with all this decrease in the visible supply of hogs. There is also an enormous decrease in the supply of lard. There are only 24,000 tierces on hand at Chicago, while this time last year there were 72,000 tierces. This makes 26,200,000 pounds less lard on hand than a year ago. There can be but one outcome of this scarcity, the consumer must pay more for his pork and lard. The price of hogs is now high, with the probability that they will go even higher. I see no immediate prospect for their getting lower.
